WITH PRIOR APPROVAL from the HFM Steering Committee, groups may sell items for fundraising at the market. Please tell us what you plan to display/offer, including any items you'd like to sell at the market (including prices), and whether or not you plan to solicit/accept donations at the market:

After attendance and date are agreed upon, the farmers market will supply a 10x10 tent with weights, 6 ft table, tablecloth and one chair for your organization to utilize on your day at the market. Your organization will be responsible for your own volunteers, signage and ways to attach or hold down (bungee cords, tape), additional chairs.

The applicant signature (below) acknowledges that s/he has read, understands, and agrees to abide by the terms of the HFM 2018 Rules of Operation.

The Hopkinton Farmers Market, its Steering Committee, and its members, agents, and volunteers, the Town of Hopkinton and any of its agents are not responsible for any damage. Insurance is not required for most organizations as long as you are not selling food or products that are applied to the body. If the operation plans on selling food, Board of Health approval is required.
