The mission of the Hopkinton Farmers Market is to provide a venue for local farmers, artisans and handcrafters to sell their products, improve nutrition by providing greater access to fresh local produce, educate residents about nutrition and sustainable agriculture and to build community while contributing to a vibrant town center in downtown Hopkinton.

We welcome applications for participation in the HFM from any Vendor whose products and practices are consistent with the HFM mission and 2019 Rules of Operation. Please follow the directions below in submitting your application package.

To apply to become a Vendor for the 2019-20 winter season, please read the HFM 2019 Rules of Operation, then download and complete this form, and submit all of the following documents:

- Winter Farmers Market Application
- All farms and food vendors, personal care products are required to have liability insurance. Artisans are exempt as long as your product is not consumed or applied to people or animals.
- Certificate of insurance from your insurance company indicating general liability insurance (in amounts not less than $1,000,000 per person per incident and $1,000,000 aggregate), and product liability insurance (in an amount not less than $1,000,000) If your insurance expires after your application, please follow up with the renewal certificate at the appropriate time. Hopkinton Farmers Market should appear as certificate holder.
- Please make all payments by check or money order, payable to the Hopkinton Farmers Market for the dates you plan on attending. $20 per market, $100 for all 5 markets. Payment is requested at the time of application.
- If you are a current food vendor for the Hopkinton Farmers Market, your food permit will expire in May 2020. Food permits are now good for one year. If you are new to our market, a food permit application will be sent to you when your market application is received. These applications will need to be submitted to the Hopkinton Board of Health 2 weeks prior to your first requested market date.
